himself here permanently, for the purpose of practicing his profession in all its various branches, after the latest and most approved style. Having practiced for the last twenty years in New Orleans, I feel confident of giving satisfaction to every one who may honor me with a call. I would call the particular attention of the public to my mode of filling teeth, which is done in such a manner as to get twice the amount of gold into a cavity, as done in the usual way. I can, therefore, "guarantee" every tooth plugged in such manner to be as good as if never decayed.
Artificial teeth inserted—from one to an entire set—pliments over the Atlantic cable upon the wings of the lightning to President Buchanan. The dispatch contains the first words that electricity ever bore over the Atlantic. A message never before crossed the ocean much short of week. This one has come over in a few minutes There is no longer any doubt of the success of this grand enterprise. All doubts are removed this grand enterprise. The Atlantic cable is a Breathitt ..... reality. The ocean, with its vast depths, its great expanse, its mountain waves, its resistless tides, and its terrible storms, has been overcome. Its two shores, separated from one another by three thousand miles of trackless, restless, raging Ballard waters, have been brought together. Man stands upon the coast of Ireland and converses with his Wayne (rep) fellow-man upon the American shore, as if no space intervened. This is certainly one of the grandest events of any age. It takes rank with the invention of rinting, the discovery of the mariner's compass, and the application of steam to the propulsion of machinery. No one can comprehend the benefits that must flow to nations and to individuals. In times of war the colission of armies may be averted, and in times of peace all the arts and sciences that make men and nations mighty, may be foster. ed. It literally overcomes space, which has he retofore defied the power of man, and unites the two ends of the world into one. Whether the cable now upon the bed of the At antic is to remain there for any great length of ime, as a medium of thought, is for time to deermine. It may be ground to dust by the iceergs which cruise from the Arctic to the Trop ic Seas. The storms that lash the sea into fury may bring metter in contact with it that will snap like a cobweb. The weight of waters that press apon the unfathomable depths of the sea, may rush in the steel net work that envelopes the elecric wire, and impede the current. Time alone an determine the future usefulness of the great enterprise, whose success now fills two continents

But whether this submarine cable shall remain s a work of future usefulness or not, it is but the ginning of a grand system. Electric wires will laid across all the waters of the world. The lands that dot the seas like stars in the heavens, will be linked with the continents. It will not be ong before the Chinese will stand at Pekin and onverse with the American at New York, and he Englishman at London. Time and space, and and and water will no longer offer any resistance o the thought of man as it sweeps from conti ent to continent with the voice of the clouds.

The Queen's dispatch is short and sweet. I onsists of 25 words, and is as follows: To the Hon, the Presdent of the United States. Her Majessy desires to congratulate the Presi-ent upon the successful completion of this great nternational work, in which the Queen has taken le deepest interest. At the rate fixed for other dispatches it would cost $25. Telegraping across the ocean is, there ore, quite an expensive business. In the course f time, however, the price will be much reduced. other wires will be laid so as to facilitate the disatch of news. Other instruments will be made which will force messages over more rapidly. the enterprise is yet an infant which is to grow years and strength. At the present rate, but ew dispatches will be sent, but as improvenents reduce the price, they will become as nuerous as the dispatches now sent upon land.

The Free Nigger Party.

The editor of the Journal has despaired of the ield. There is no telling what the vote would have been on the Democratic side, if the race of August the second, had been for Governor, Conressmen, Legislators, etc. The editor undertands this well enough, and sees his forces dis anded, and scattered, and disheartened, and munous, even in the citadel of Louisville. The fu re is dark, and hence he has taken a dark o

Black Republican view of it. He has been indicating very clearly how he in ends to take as many of the South Americans a ssible over to the Black Republicans. He sees hope but in a fusion of these two parties. He as undertaken to show that Black Republican enders entertain sound ideas of popular soverignty. On this idea of popular sovereignty he ntertains the hope of uniting Southerners with Black Republicans. Was there ever an idea more bsurd? If there is a true South American who tertains the Black Republican idea of popular vereignty, we know not who he is, where h ves, nor what sort of man he is. There can be no such thing as the Southern lea of popular sovereignty among the Black Re publicans. These fanatics proclaim that no more lave States shall be added to the Union. The say that the area of slavery shall not be extended Not one of them could be elected to any office in the North, who would dare say that he is in favor of letting the people of a territory come into the Union with a pro-slavery constitution, although majority were in favor of it. If he were elected at all, it would be by Democratic votes. He could not be elected as a Black Republican, by Black Republican votes, with any such an idea of popular overeignty. The Black Republicans who voted for the Crit tenden-Montgomery substitute at the last session of Congress, did so because they wanted to de feat a Southern Democratic administration measure and keep a slave State from coming into the Union, and because they believed that Kansas, at all events, would come into the Union as a free State. They had no idea that this seeming show of popular sovereignty would amount to any thing. They expressly avowed that there was no danger in what they were doing. They voted for the substitute by bargain and agreement, and some of them have already repudiated that vote, so far as it was an act of popular sovereignty All of them will repudiate it upon the stump, in the newspapers, and at the ballot-box. Their bargain was completed when the Lecompton Constitution was defeated, and with that defeat their ideas of popular sovereignty vanished. It is vain to talk to Southerners about fusing with Black Republicans upon popular sovereignty while their negroes are daily disappearing. Under round railroads are too plentiful now, and they will become much more numerous so soon as Black Republican orators and editors open the canvass, n the South, in behalf of their Northern allies. Every orator from the Northern school would be sure of a dozen or more runaway niggers for every speech he made in the South. And as for the editors, they would run off whole plantations of negroes in a single presidential contest. South Americans will have nothing to do with ch an amalgamation. They will join the Demcracy, who, both at the North and the South, are true to the South and to the Union. They will have no associations with those who are the cause of so many of their negroes escaping. The editor of the Journal may go openly to work with the Black Republicans as soon as he likes, but he can't carry his former partizans with him. He may make the Southern half of Sam as black as he pleases, and make him travel to the Black Repubcans as fast as any runaway nigger ever sloped, but the Americans who are true to the South won't follow. They will stand no such company. They will become Democrats, or keep aloof from any party. They can't and they won't stand the free nigger party.

NARROW ESCAPE. - John A. Williams, a conductor on the Kentucky Central Railroad, was knocked from a freight train by coming in contact with a bridge, one day last week. He happened to fall into a mud hole, and it is owing to this circumstance, doubtless, that he was not instantly killed.

LETTER FROM BRECKINRIDGE

[Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.] The Vote of Kentucky—Correction of our Figures

— The Mountain Counties—Some Curious Results—Reflections, etc., etc.

STEPHENSPORT, KY., Aug. 12, '58. Editors Louisville Courier: Your figures are at ault some way with reference to the vote between McKee and Revill. In your last Wednesday's issue is published returns from 80 counties. Summing these up carefully, and adding 70 for a mistake in Meade county (his vote there being 379 nstead of 309), I find the result to be 55,713 for

Revill's maj. in 92 from gave Garrard 2,040 mai cted with the recent election.

13,454 You will thus perceive that, should the remaining counties come in as they did last year, Revill's majority in the State will be 13,454—a Democratic ain of 803 votes!

There are some rather surprising results con-

When McKee was nominated, it was asserted that his popularity in the mountain counties was unbounded—that he would, in fact, "set the mountains on fire." How different is the result! If the six counties remaining to be heard from in the Sixth District, show no falling off in Democratic trength from last year, and I do not appreend that they will, Revill's majority in that listrict will be 2,483 votes—nearly a thousand more than Elliott got for Congress last year, and very nearly equal to Garrard's, a native of the district, and having a large family connexion in it.

Again, the Ninth District, which is essentially a mountain district," shows a large Democratic ain over last year. Considering that McKee, in Il his speeches, professed to be a "mountain man ull over,' the mountains, it must be confessed, have treated him rather shabbily.

But McKee was not altogether wrong. The nountains are on fire, and have been on fire ever ince the advent of Know Nothingism, but it has een a steady, bright, unquenchable Democratic re that withers and consumes everything inimical to true liberty, civil and religious. It is, in-deed, in the mountains where liberty most often takes refuge from the tyrants and oppressors of he world; and where, as Joe Holt eloquently said h his speech in 1855, just after the horrid butch-ry in your city, whilst, indeed, the smoke from Quinn's row mingled with the dying breath of numerous victims to an ignorant, selfish, and de-graded prejudice, was still ascending to heaven, finds at once its chosen home and most apregnable fortress."
I see that the Lexington Observer boasts of the Ashland District giving McKee 14 majority. This is not true, if your figures are correct. On the contrary, Revill carried the district by 41.

Yours truly, J. H. B. LETTER FROM "THE ECCENTRIC."

But this is sufficient on this head. I pass to the inexhaustible topic of the weather, which is scalding hot, and scarcely to be weathered through. But the dance goes on, nd at this moment, in the ball room above, the fall of fairy feet is heard, keeping time to the measures of delightful music. I am no dancer myself, and no relation of the celebrated Daniel, of self, and no relation of the celebrated Daniel, of English notoriety—famous for his partiality for old clothes and ready money. In fact, Dancer is not my name; but, then, I love to see dancing going on. Oh, my countrymen! The twinkle of tiny feet—the whirl of crinoline—the flash of glorious eyes, and the strains of glorious music—ah! who can resist the intoxication? Not I, the Eccentric; not I, the whilom poet; not I, the lecturer;—for I was born to love music and beauty. Sweet vas born to love music and beauty. Sweet trains of melody wandered over my heart in hildhood, and beauty woke the first faint echoes its song in my bosom. To look on the beauti-l is one of the inestimable privileges which God happy song, as it came floating on the w ight, was even unto me as a ministration from eaven, and a message from angel friends, and a oice from on high. Lehman, and Isaac Strauss, dealers in clothing, on Front Row, caused themselves to be reported yesterday to the Recorder by officer Drafus, as having sold articles in their store on Sunday last. They are Israelites, and made the sale and had it reported for the purpose of testing the law by which a number of persons of their faith have recently been fined in this city for keeping open their stores and doing their ordinary business on the day of Christian worship. They were fined five dollars, and they entered an appeal against the decision to the Common Law Court, from whence, if necessary, it is their intention to carry the case to the highest legal tribunal in the land. They have engaged the best legal talent in land. They have engaged the best legal talent in the city, and expect to obtain a decision similar to that rendered in a number of States, by which the Sunday law, in its operation towards those of the Hebrew faith, has been declared unconstitutional and inconsistent with that religions freedom guarantied to every resident in the United States. General Cass, who must be nearly eighty, is feeble, but is hard at work. This extraordinary man's career is alike a study and an example. He has lived a blameless life, and has grown to distinction almost entirely by his awn efforts. He is now one of the richest men in the Union. He invested heavily in the town of Detroit, Michigan, of which he was a pioneer, and the growth of the West, especially since the railroad system has extended its powerful influence, has vastly appreciated his property. He is said to be worth four or five millions. And yet, with all his wealth, he lives a frugal and abstemious life. The management of his vast estate is confided to his enterprizing son-in-law, Mr. Ledyard, who resides in Detroit.

Reported for the Louisville Courier. POLICE COURT.

GEO. W. JOHNSTON, JUDGE. Monday, August 16.
Drunk and Disorderly.—The first case comenced with, this week, was John Murphy, of urse an Irishman. He had but one eye, and was taken in on Saturday night, supposed to be drunk, and disorderly, too. Even his neighbors spoke out against him, saying something about a bowie knife and bad whisky. If he went away bowle and bad whise. It he was sure to come home at night full of liquor. Bail of $200 was required for his good behavior three months. Another.—Jerry McCartey is supposed to be periodically drunk, and that happens every Saturday night, and lasts over Sunday. The watch says some of 'em are drunk in that corner, where the McCartey came out of, all the time, and he was held to bail in $100 for two months on sus-

SUSPECTED BLACK FELON -Dick Buckner, an old Suspected Black Frion —Dick Buckner, an old he darkey, very black, except the top of his head, which is slightly frosted, was presented on the charge of being a suspected felon. The prosecution was not quite ready to make out a case. [Suspected Frion—Disorderly Conduct.—Win. Henry Ward, a dark complexioned young man, was in arrest and presented by watchman Head on the above charges. He says he found him in a negro quarter, the Brown family, where he passed for a negro, though claiming to be a white man. gro quarter, the Brown family, where he passed for a negro, though claiming to be a white man, and acted suspicious by first denying and then admitting that he was part negro, telling the witness he couldn't prove it. He travels about from place to place, first Nashville then St. Louis, and has head lodgings with the Brown family, one Sarah, of color of a brown saddle. The accused it is a quadron no doubt though residence. is a quadroon, no doubt, though passing for a white man, and was presented as a white man.—
The counsel, in his defense, asserted that he is part negro, and can't associate with whites, while the prosecution was equally positive that he is white, and can't associate with the colored popu-lation, so that between both he is in a fix, and can't go with either party, and must run by him-self, or else go over to the Arabs. The court de-cided to hold him to bail in $100 for his good be cided to hold him to bail in $100 for his good be havior three months.

A Trio in Difficulty.—Thomas Burke, James McConnell and Thomas McElvogue, were together presented on the charge of disorderly conduct, in carrying concealed deadly weapons. A witness, a tall young man, said he was in company of another, yesterday, (Sunday,) in front of Collins's, when some one invited them in to drink, but witness first declined, saying he owed thirty cents, and didn't want to go in, but did go, and while nd didn't want to go in, but did go, and while there had a difficulty with the two first named, and something was said about a fight last Monday, and one of 'em said something about fighting tout, when witness said he wanted no fight, but McConnell and Burke drew weapons—one a bowie knife and the other a double-barrelled pistol. The last named in the arrest, McElvogue, the witness says, was not there, and had nothing to do with says, was not there, and had nothing to do with the fray; the watch were sent for, and the parties arrested—McElvogue having the knife, which was handed to him by one of the others. The fusa originated with one McNickle, who had said he could whip both the others; and no doubt he could, as he is a heavy man, and they merely boys. He was about the Court, but too drunk to appear. It further appeared that McNickle weut into the house, said he could whip the two boys, and got the poker to kill 'em, when they drew their weapons, and it would have been all right if they had used them. The accused are represent-ed as quiet, peaceably, well-disposed boys. The ed as quiet, peaceably, well-disposed boys. The young men were held to bail for an attempt to as-sault the witness, Daily, and McElvogue was discharged. CHARGE OF ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A warrant was sued out by Chas. Crampf against Wm. Gilmore for an alleged assault committed on — day in August. Said Cramf didn't appear, but another witness did, and after a good deal of arument he was permitted to testify, and said he new nothing about it, excepting that some one it the fellow, and the warrant was dismissed.

A Peace Warrant Case.—Pat Cunniff and fam-

y were up on a peace warrant by Thomas Swift, ho says the women folks passed the compliments the season to each other, together with a few brickbats. All this was at night, in the back-yard, and he, defendant, who had been in bed, up-and at 'em and put his wife in the house. Here we left the case to the kind consideration of the ourt, which, probably, held both sides to bail, or ertainly required the recognizance of defendant. CHARGE OF THEFT AND ABETTING SLAVES TO UNAWAY.—Wm. Lewis, a tall, thin-visaged, piddle-aged man, with dark hair, said to be an old itizen, was presented on the charge of stealing lothing and aiding slaves to escape. The dethe case till to-morrow. After hearing the mony of Thos. Reaugh, watchman, and Wisotski, the case was continued till to-mo Reaugh and Tiller arrested him, finding of the negroes, and the daguerrectype of one of em, that of a small child, all nicely packed in a w chest. He had this at his room where he dged. Mrs. Wisotzki recognized the things in the chest as the clothes of her slave woman, Ma-a, and the child Cena. She also fully recognized he daguerreotype as that of the child, taken hen it was three years old. It is now six. The nest, though a moderate sized one, was full of esses and other fixings, nearly all of which were ulicos, of the mother, together with a lot of toys, onnets, and other things. Mrs. W. had susceed that something wrong was going on with er servants, and saw a man one night in the ard, who, she thinks, was the accused. After that a peculiar whistle had been heard at the gate; titness told her boy to go and see who it was, but ine. Subsequently the slaves were found in the couse of Dick Buckner, the free negro who is also a arrest on the same charge as Lewis, attempting

From the Memphis Avalanche.] The Investigating Committee--The Exchange

Bank and Treasury Plunderers. We learn, by a private letter from a reliable ource at the State Capital, that the joint select egislature to examine into the condition of cer in free banks, and other matters directly and in ille since the first Monday in May, has cou-luded its labors, and will report at a very ear-y day. The investigation has been a herculean ask; the difficulties of which have been greatly augmented by the want of familiarity, on the part of the members of the committee, with the de-tails of accounts, and by the loose and irregular anner in which the affairs of some of the offices ion, and the report will exhibit a series of start ling facts and embezzlements, scarcely inferior to the municipal government of New York.

The defaication of the late Secretary of Stat falls but little short of forty thousand dollars.

These were funds that came into his hands by virtue of his office as Internal Improvement missioner. This will be a total loss to the State Treasury—the official bond of the defaulting sec-retary, as well as the person of that important functionary, both having turned up missing. The investigation of the committee exhibits the astonishing fact that these defalcations began funds he ever received—being something more than two thousand dolars paid out by the treasu-as been in session, and while they were investigating these very charges.

We learn further from the letter of our correspondent, that the report of the committee will expenses the unanimous opinion of its members, that he bonds required by law to be deposited with the comptroller, as security for the issue of free banks, were, in the case of the Exchange Bank, never desired.

The deficit in the amount of honds claimposited! The deficit in the amount of bonds claimed to have been deposited by the Messrs. Spence, it will be recollected, reaches the sum of one hundred and twenty-three thousand dollars. This opinion of the committee reflects, by implication, as a matter of course, upon the official integrity of the lete Computedles since only by collusion with opinion of the committee reflects, by implication, as a matter of course, upon the official integrity of the late Comptroller, since only by collusion with that officer, could this discrepency arise. The high standing of the parties implicated in this transaction, and their well established reputation for integrity, will subject this portion of the report to a severe and scrutinizing criticism. Public sentiment, in the best informed circles at Nashville, is represented to be very greatly divided in regard to the party justly amenable to censure in this fraudulent transaction, and the war between the Messrs. Spence and the late Comptroller on the one part, and the Cashier of the Bank of Tennessee on the other, will, it is predicted, break out with renewed vigor upon the publication of the committee's report. The Messrs. Spence, under the advice of the most eminent legal counsel, will forthwith institute a suit in chancery against the Bank of Tennessee for the amount of the missing bonds.

In regard to the much talked of overpayment of interest on the State indebtedness, our correspondent says the amount fixed upon by the committee has ranged at different times from thirty to two hundred thousand dollars, but that they have finally reduced it to a comparatively trifling sum; and he jocularly suggests that when they have computed the difference in exchange, salaries, and other expenses incident to its payment, it will very likely turn out that the State has not paid the full amount due as interest upon her debt, and is now actually in arrears.

THE LAST SHOOTING AFFAIR.-We stated yes terday that Charley Gennett, an up-town charac ter accidentally shot himself in the thigh, on Saturday night. It was true he was so shot, and from the circumstances detailed to us, quite probable that he shot himself. But here is how the thing occurred. A difficulty, confined to words and epithets, occurred on the last election, at the First Ward polls, between Gennett and Mr. Ridge who lives near Woodland Garden. This and an alleged assault subsequently upon Gray, one of Gennett's friends, had engendered bad feelings, in which Ridge's two sons and several others on the one side, and Gennett, Jno. Gray, Jno. Larkin, John Dosch and Mike Metz seemed all to have participated. On Saturday night the former parwere peaceably going up Main street towards Ridge's house, and at the corner of Wenzel they were met by the five persons last named, who had just come out of Woodland Garden. One of the five said, "Here is the damned son of bitch now, let's kill him," and immediately the party fired upon Ridge and his friends, who returned the fire briskly. Although from fifteen to thirty shots were exchanged, no one was injured except Gennett, whose pistol, it is said, caught in his shirt as he was drawing it for warlike action, and the ball was discharged into the fleshy part of the thigh. The parties then separated without damage other than named.

On Sunday morning, about 10 o'clock, Larkin went up in the vicinity of Ridge's residence and fired two shots at the old man. Larkin then beat a hasty retreat, pursued by one or more sons of Ridge, who fired at him once or twice. The chased party run around or concealed himself in Atkinson's pork house, and finally made his escape, minus his hat, which he dropped in his rapid flight No person was burt in the last affair. We have been told that since the election, Ridge who is a teamster, fearing an assault from these men, has been compelled to go armed to his work. We have heard it also stated that the party who attacked Ridge were thirteen persons. Up to last night there were no arrests, although it might be reasonably supposed that sufficient time had elapsed for the purpose.

SLEEPING CARS ON RAILBOADS .- Our attention has been called to the happy invention of sleeping cars on railroads, an improvement that will do away with a good deal of the dread and tediousness of railroad travel. A friend, writing to ing cars, and finds them an admirable invention making night travel, on a railroad, as pleasant, comfortable and desirable as the best of steamboat travel, and the bed arrangements on the cars equal in ease and comfort to the best bed in

The traveler going East, via the mail boats and Cincinnati, by taking the Columbus and Cleveland road, can enjoy the luxury of the sleeping cars Passengers for Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, by taking the Cleveland road, can sleep till 5 o'clock in the morning, on the cars. This is a great advantage, which should be remembered.

The old established railroad, via Crestline Cleveland, has the credit and honor of establish ing these great conveniences to the wearv traveler and we learn from Mr. H. C. Marshall, the general ticket agent at Cleveland, that the sleeping cars are a fixed fact on each night train on his line.

THEATER.—This establishment re-opened last evening with the Martinetti and Blondin Troupe, and to quite a good house. Some of the decorations of the theater are decidedly handsome, while others are not so tasty. Those who patronize the theater know the forte of the troupe, and are, of course, aware the entertainment is more curious and surprising than instructive. In the course of the evening Mr. Lorton, the stage manager, announced to the audience that a message to President Buchanan, from the Queen of England, had been transmitted by the Atlantic telegraph cable. Its reading was hailed with shouts, deep and heart-felt.

A COMPLETE LIQUOR ESTABLISHMENT.-Noar & Burrill, whose liquor store is on Third street, near the Courier office, have fitted up the finest estabishment of the kind in the city, and we doubt that its arrangement and general completeness for that business is surpassed in the Western States. They have whisky, brandies and wines that would excite the admiration of a connoisseur, and liquors of lesser grades, to suit the custom of dealers, areconstantly on hand. They also keep a large lot of preserved fruits, pickles, sauces, and all such condiments. We commend them as deserving a generous patronage from the public. Orders from a distance will receive prompt attention

REJOICINGS ABOUT THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH CA-ELE.—The reception of the Queen's message was the occasion of many jubilant demonstrations on the part of the telegraphic operators. The office on Main street was brilliatnly illuminated. Several persons attached to the office were engaged in aring off rockets and other fire-works, whilst a large crowd of persons filled the side walks for some distance around. All those there assembled evinced the utmost satisfaction at the successful denouement of this much wished for event. No public demonstration has been made, as the contents of the message were not generally known.

To Consumptive Invalids, and all those who suf fer with dsseases of the Throat and Lungs-We are requested to say, that owing to the number of invalids who have written to Dr. Flower, and are o their way to this city in order to consult him, that Dr. F. has returned to Louisville, Ky., and will remain at his office, on the corner of Centre and Green, during the summer months. He is de sirous of establishing a permanent office in thi city. His peculiar theory is rapidly gaining for him a successful practice. He offers as usual, consultations free to all.

SALE AT MOUND CITY.-The next great sale of Mound City lots, in the State of Illinois, takes place on Sept. 24th, as will be seen in our advering columns. The sale promises to be decided ly the largest of all, and bargains may be had that will make one rich by the investment. That Mound City is to be a place of note is hardly questioned. And there are those who are now directing its affairs whose prudence and energy and foresight will conduct it to an enviable position among the new cities of the West.

DAILY COURIER | Banner Presentation to the United Sons of Erin. A magnificent banner was presented, yesterday by the ladies of Louisville, to the United Sons of Erin, a benevolent society. The presentation took place at Mr. John Ryan's, on Seventh, be- ly manner. It is said that several men tried on tween Walnut and Chestnut. The ceremonies were rendered unusually interesting by the very ts drink and take soup. For some reason he delarge number of ladies who were present, and the clined, and after they left the saloon a bowl of handsome addresses delivered on the occasion .-Following the presentation, the guests were hospitably entertained by Mr. Ryan. Subsequently the society marched through several streets with their beautiful banner flung to the breeze. The banner was received from the hands of Miss with this eloquent address, by Mr. W. L. Kelly: Sons of Erin: In woman's name, I present you this eautiful banner, trusting and believing that you will ear it as gallantly and as proudly even as though rod the soil of the "Lone Sea-girt Isle," bearing on the soil of the "Lone Sea-girt Isie," bearing her een banner on to victory. Irishmen! many of you are exiles from the home of our birth. You are wanderers from a land still beauti-lin her desolation—most brilliant in her sadness; and is but natural that memory should oftentimes carry u back to the scenes of early youth and manh ions swifter far than the lightning which already has en snatched from the skies of God and chained to the wes of the ocean. How do not the Irish mountains om up upon the sky of memory, painted in the gorge s coloring with which love ever seeks to clothe its ob ect? In rising, how often do you not see the "round owers of other days," keeping their lonely watch o'er he Irish waters—at once the emblem of the glory and memories of the loved and lost—the lost but not for otten, come up so vividly when the anchor of the soul welphed. And the soul sweeps out upon the broad cean of the past in glorious dreams; and you long to ear the sweet music of that old "Harp," whose strings w, alas! are broken—whose wild notes of liberty are ard no longer o'er the Irish hills. But mingling with the rainbow coloring of this picture, mes the dark story of Ireland's tribulation—that cloud has no silver lining—that "darkest hour" which ds not the dawn. The upas tree of tyranny is plant nid the famed fertility of her valleys, within the lows of her grand old mountains, and beneath it us exhalations, the wretched peasant droops an it is useless for me to draw back that vail ers the scenes of desolation which, from the day o "Union" to this hour, has ever followed in the wak English tyranny. Famine has sat enthroned on her en hills, and the "en igrant ship" has become one een hills, and the "enigrant ship" has become on portant feature in Irish history.

"The Harp that once through Tara's halis, The soul of music shed," mute and silent now, for the harper, beneath whos agic-touch the quivering chords breathed in song, now alks on the land of the stranger.

Ireland's history has been written in her blood. Her llant sons have suffered, and suffering, they have re lled—they have fought, and they have fallen; bu eir national spirit, I trust, is not dead, but only sleeps e, sleeps, gathering strength in its slumbers, until, d's good time, it will burst forth, lighting up the torc of liberty on her mountain tops and lonely valleys hering her sturdy yeomanry for battle. And Ireland thering her sturdy yeomanry for battle. And freis irst flower of the earth," shall stand as of yore, "When her kings, with banners of green unfurled, Led the red-branch knights to danger, E're the emerald gem of the Western world Was set in the crown of a stranger."

It has been said, Irishmen, that you are not loval t nen your calumniators point me to one battle field of revolution when Irish blood flowed not for American lependence. I will believe it, if, in following the sce strife from the Raisin to New Orleans, I should f that the adopted citizen ever failed in his duty, as he tood side by side with the native born, upholding the starry flag. And, finally, I would believe it, did I not know that Irish blood flows like water on every gory field, where "Columbia expects every man to do his later."

ield, where "Columbia expects every man to do his inty."
You, "Sons of Erin," are banded together in one of the most holy duties of life. Charity is the first, the last, the most holy duties of life. Charity is the first, the last, the embodiments of every commandment of God. It is well, too, that woman, herself the champion of benevonce and love to the distressed, should thus bear witness to your noble object. God speed you in your charities. Extend over the down-trodden the protective Aegis of this your beautiful flag, bind up the bruised heart, still the anguished cry for bread, and then you will secure the smile of heaven, and the respect of men. Rest assured, that like the dew drops which are offered ack from the altars of earth, in her thousand chalice flowers, to the skies that gave them, the bread cast by you upon the waters will be returned a hundred fold.

The reply by Mr. P. Brannon, President of time The reply by Mr. P. Brannon, President of the ociety, was as follows: SIR: In behalf of the Society I have the honor to present, I return our warmest thanks to our fair and vely friends for this beautiful banner—at once expresive of their sympathy for the objects of our association, and emblematic of the ancient nationality of that dear and, whose harp once sounded the notes of liberty, but whose strings are now unstrung by the iron hand of Oppression, misrule, tyranny, and pestilence, hav

However, politically speaking, we have none in Ireand; 'distrue, we look back to the old turffire, around which fond and loving hearts gathered; we recall our pious mothers, tender sisters, and fair neighbors; still political degredation stared us in the face on the one and, whilst on the other, the goddess of liberty becko ed us hither, and the eagle, as he soared aloft with on spread pinions, shrieked a hearty welcome, and profiered the protection of the broad Aegis of the constitution.

You, sir, paid an eloquent and glowing tribute to Irish valor, loyalty and patriotism. Thank God the clash of arms and the din of war are hushed, and the horizon is lear and serene-vet I pledge you, should Co shall respond to the call as one man, and carry the gl ous stripes and stars, as heretofore, to vict

It is stated that he is a material witness against Darwin Payne, who killed White in that city some me since, and whose trial commenced to-day.-The supposition is that he was foully dealt with for this reason. THE REVENUE AND EXPENSES OF COLLECTION. e see an article going the rounds of the opposition press, commenting severely on the fact, often exhibited in this and every other country, that the expenses incurred in maintaining a detective cenue police are greater at certain points than e gross amount of duties collected. The Rich-and Whig has lately made this discovery, and has raded it before the country as a startling intance of extravagance and political fraud. There s not a sane man in the United States that does not ow that a revenue establishment like ours must stend over every border region, and in many laces cost more than is received in the way of laties. The integrity of the system and its powof complete enforcement depend upon the ex-ent and activity of its detective force. We have most extended coast and contact line to atched; and it would be culpable folly to limit epolice to those districts alone whose revenues e sufficient to pay their expenses. Such a course ould very soon lead to the diminution of cuspts at the great ports, and to free introaction of foreign goods at the neglected places very considerable portion of the current reve nes are derived from duties upon goods of tri-ng bulk and weight, which would readily un ergo the charge of an overland carriage in order be introduced free of duty. The sagacious conomists of the Richmond Whig would cut off large portion of the detective reuenue force in der to save expenses, and thereby diminish the noomes at the great marts perhaps ten times wer. Atlantic Cable Working Admirably! AND CONNECTING WITH ALL THE LINES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY

UNBOUNDED ENTHUSIASM !!

The Cable Entirely Dispelled. New York, August 16.—Information has been received that the Atlantic Cable is all right at both ends, and throughout, and that the Queen's message has been received, and is now in process nission through the length and breadth of CYRUS STATION, August 16 .- To the Directors of the Atlantic Telegraph Company: Europe and America are united by telegraph! Glory be to God in the Highest; on earth, peace and good will towards men.

Signed by the Directors of the Atlantic Telegraph Company of Great Britain.

New York, Aug. 16.—The following message from Mr. Desauty, one of the assistant electricians of the Atlantic Telegraph Company, has been re-Teinity Bay, Aug. 14

To the Directors of the Atlantic Telegraph: Teause of not transmitting or receiving intelliger through the cable is, that the instruments require a grideal of care and adjusting. I am doing this as f ceived:

through the cable is, that the instruments require a great deal of care and adjusting. I am doing this as fast as possible. You should not look upon the cable as an ordinary short telegraph line, that can be worked through directly. The cable has been successfully laid, and telegraphic signals have passed through at pleasure; but we have encountered many little difficulties which require time, and which only many experiments can entirely overcome. I see no reason to doubt that we shall be able, within a few days, to surmount all difficulties.—I will send the earliest intimation of the probable time the Queen's message may be expected. een's message may be expected

[Signed] DESAUTY.
In addition to the above, a private distratch has been received from a reliable gentleman at St.
Johns, who is in a position to obtain the earliest and most correct unofficial intelligence concerning the operations, in which he states that communications from the office at Valencia Bay have been received but from some unexplained consequence. been received, but from some unexplained cause it has been impossible to send that or any other lligence to the operators at Valencia. This state of things often occurs upon land lines—that is, one office can receive correctly from a distant operator, and yet be unable to send a word, and the difficulty is sooner or later discovered to be in the battery, its connections, or the instruments, and there is no reason to doubt that the present difficulty in working the cable will, as soon as the electricians can compare notes, be entirely over Rejoicings over the Success of the Atlantic Telegraph.

Indianapolis, Aug.—P: M.—There is great enthusiasm over the successful working of the Atlantic cable. A salute of 100 guns will be fired to-morrow; the church and fire bells will then be ung, and there will be a general illumination in the evening.

It is understood that the following was deposited by Queen Victoria with Mr. Dallas, our Minister to the Court of St. James, some days ince, to be forwarded to the President whenever and as soon as the cable was reported to be in working order, and this afternoon was transmitted by way of Valentia Bay.

To which the President of the United States:

Her Majesty desires to congratulate the President upon the successful completion of this great international rork, in which the Queen has taken the deepest interest. To which the President replied:

To which the President replied:

The President cordially reciprocates the congratulations of her Majesty, the Queen, on the success of the great international enterprise, accomplished by the science, skill and indomitable energy of the two countries. It is a triumph more glorious, because more useful, than was ever won by the conqueror on the field of battle. May the Atlantic Telgraph Company, under the blessing of Heaven, prove to be a bond of perpetual peace and friendship between the kindred nations, and an instrument destined oy divine Providence to diffuse religion, civilization, liberty and law throughout the world. In this view, will not all the nations of Christendom spontaneously uinte in the declaration—that it shall be forever neutral, and that its communications shall be held sacred in the places of their destination, in the midst of hostilities?

Collision of the Steamships Europa and Arabia,&c

Sr. John's, N. F., August 16.—The royal mail steamship Europa, bound for Liverpool, came in collision, on Saturday evening, with the royal mail steamship Arabia, from Liverpool, bound to New York. The Arabia mistook the Europa's lights for those of Cape Race. The Europa strived here to-day, having lost her cut-water and steam, and being otherwise damaged. She will be repaired here. Intelligent, enterprising and practical men who will come and see and investigate in person, will be convinced that the extraordinary commercial advantages and facilities of railroad and steamboat transportation possessed by Kentucky City secures to this point requisites for manufacturing and commercial purposes, which must, of necessity, cause it speedily to become the great intermediate city between the NORTH and the SOUTH, at which the productions and manufactures of each section will be concentrated for sale, or to be exchanged for those of the other.

The Hon. Post-Master General, in a recent report says: "No man can look at the map of this coun without his eye finally resting on the mouth of the O as the center of population and commerce of the Unit States" States."

The sale is to be made without reserve and in good faith, and there will always be a reliable gentleman on the ground whose pleasure and duty it will be to give all needful information, and answer all written or oral interrogatories. Then let no one permit himself to be led off by rumor, when the facts are so accessible to all.

The subscriber respectfully invites the attention of the The subscriber respectfully invites the attention of the public, and of purchasers particularly, to the superior PREMIUM PIANOS, Manufactured by him. A splendid assortment constantly on hand.

Our Pianos have received a Premium two years in succession, 1856 and 1857, at the Fairs of the American Institute, Crystal Palace, in competition with most of the leading manufacturers of New York and Boston, and are unquestionably of the best quality of tone, full, round and brilliant, as well as finish and durability, and we flatter ourselves, by the approval of renowned artists, in venturing to say that our Pianos stand superior to many others, and equal to any Grand Piano in regard to volume of tone and elasticity of touch, combined with the greatest firmness, which is very rarely met with in other Pianos.

We respectfully solicit an examination from strangers and friends, to convince themselves of the above before purchasing elsewhere. All our Pianos are warranted.

Prof. Chas. De Grath's Electric Oil THE PRIEND OF MAN. As an example of the estimation in which it is held by one of the ablest writers, jurists, and writers on law, &c., in this country, we will give a letter received by Prof. DuGrarm from John Livingston, Eaq., editor of the well-known Monthly Law Magazine, 157 Broadway, New York. A word of such testimony is of more weight among the best classes of the country than volumes from unknown sources:

from unknown sources:

Prof. Charles DeGrarm: I freely give it as my opinion that your "Electric Oil" is among the most wonderful remedies of modern times. At the earnest request of a lady who alleged she had been relieved of a most painful affection by its use, I was induced to try a bottle, though at the time of purchasing I fully believed it to be a quack medicine and a catchpenny humbug. But a trial convinces me that it possesses a magic power, and its use will prove a blessing to suffering humanity. I recently took a cold from sleeping in damp sheets, and my neck became so much swollen and painful that I could not turn my head.

After using, without success, everything prescribed by my physician, I last evening tried your Electric Ob. This morning I am well, the relief having been as complete as it was instataneous.

Yours very truly,

Editor Monthly Law Magazine,
157 Broadway and 120 West Fourteenth st., N. Y.
